Frazer Estate Control Rests With M'Govern

McNutt Rules Retailer Intended to Reside On Peninsula

Although James Frazer, well-to-do Palo Alto department store operator, moved into San Mateo county only a brief period before his death on September 10 at San Mateo, he had been contemplating the step for 20 years.

This testimony, given by Miss Grace Partee, 520 Emerson street, Palo Alto, was a strong factor in bringing about Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt's decision at Redwood City late Tuesday determining that Frazer was a bonafide resident of the peninsula and not San Francisco.

As a result, Judge McNutt appointed Dr. J. C. McGovern, San Mateo county public administrator, to handle the Frazer estate, estimated to be worth at least $300,000.

In his decision appointing Dr. McGovern the jurist refused the pleas of Phil Katz, San Francisco public administrator, and the Bank of America, which claims to be an executor in a so-far "lost will," to find that Frazer, although he maintained his business interests in Palo Alto, was an actual resident of San Francisco.

Miss Partee testified before Judge McNutt that Frazer had told her shortly after moving into San Mateo county "I should have made this change 20 years ago."

Examined as other witnesses and giving similar testimony to that of Miss Partee's were Mrs. Elizabeth M. Kneese, former San Mateo county clerk, and Miss Elinor Falvey, former deputy county clerk.

John Darragh, one of the few friends who had known Frazer closely, said the merchant had confided that he planned to construct a home on the peninsula so he would be mid-way between his Palo Alto stores and his San Francisco buying centers.

"I think he was a resident of San Mateo county and I so find," Judge McNutt said upon conclusion of the hearing.

Dr. McGovern's petition to be appointed general administrator set forth that the heirs to Frazer's estate were unknown, but it was believed that he had relatives in Ireland. The public administrator had been temporarily in charge of the Frazer stores pending his appointment late yesterday.

Bank attorneys, Rothchild & Golden, San Francisco, and Lakin & Leve, Palo Alto, will probably produce the copy of the asserted Frazer will for filing, it was indicated. The copy will be of a will which Frazer had the San Francisco firm draw several years ago. The will has not been found. It named the Bank of America as executor, it was said.

Contents of the will have not been made public and such action was understood to depend upon whether or not Judge McNutt's ruling would be legally challenged.

$60,000 AGREEMENT PUT TO COURT TEST BEFORE VISITING JURIST HERE

Cousins of Late R. C. Educator Attack Fund Tie-Up

Efforts to break an estimated $60,000 trust agreement held by the Bank of America and to recover $13,000 from Carl Wagner, former manager of the local bank, and others, were opened here by relatives of the late Mrs. Jennie E. Hartley, one-time prominent Redwood City educator, in a juryless trial before Superior Judge Maurice T. Dooling Jr.

Judge Dooling, of Hollister, is presiding in the court of Superior Judge Franklin Swart, who is on vacation.

Plaintiffs in the action are Birdie and Dollie Bacon, both of Redwood City, and J. B. Bacon, of Alameda county, who are first cousins.

The complaint alleges that Mrs. Hartley was of unsound mind on July 3, 1928, when she had the trust agreement prepared. Wagner's two children were to benefit for 20 years from the income of the trust, after which Stanford University would share in the creation of a Hartley scholarship fund. Stanford has defaulted, and is not appearing in the trial.

Friend Notes Change

Mrs. Annie O'Neill, of San Francisco, was the first witness examined. She said she knew Mrs. Hartley since 1907 and had first noticed a change in her conduct about 1926, two years before the trust agreement was prepared.

The occasion was the funeral of Mrs. Hartley's sister and Mrs. Hartley asked, "Where is my mother?" Mrs. O'Neill said that Mrs. Hartley's mother had died some years ago.

She expressed an opinion under questioning by the Bacon attorney that Mrs. Hartley was "insane" in her late years.

Mrs. Fromm Witness

Mrs. August Fromm, of Redwood City, was the second witness examined. She said that Mrs. Hartley was accustomed to drop into the Sequoia Hotel and talk over stocks and bonds with Mr. Fromm but in her late years no longer recognized him.

Mrs. Fromm testified that she had told the Bacon girls they should not permit Mrs. Hartley to appear uptown unescorted. The witness was not exactly certain of the date when Mrs. Hartley last came into the hotel to talk over matters with Mr. Fromm.

Demands Return of Money

Richard Barrett, administrator of the Hartley estate, appears in intervention. He demands return of all moneys, real estate and securities held in the trust.

In the previous action, the cousins successfully contested a will left by Mrs. Hartley.

Mrs. Hartley died in Redwood City on August 29, 1932.

Keyes & Erskine and Edmund Scott appear as counsel for the bank, and Treat & Ogden and Barrett & Barrett represent the petitioners.

Merriam Aids Unemployed

Giving heed to the needs of the unemployed in the approaching winter, Gov. Frank F. Merriam has assembled all the agencies of the state government and ordered them to expand work with economy, and has announced the provision of 4,510,000 man-days of work during this fiscal year out of one division of the state government—the department of public works.

Other departments are expected to report to the governor shortly on the plans which they have to expand work for the needy during this year and at the same time reduce general operating expenses.

"Employment for men out of work who are willing and anxious to work for wages that will provide a decent living for themselves and their families has been recognized by President Roosevelt as a basic principle of his national recovery policy, and with his views in this respect I am in full accord," Governor Merriam declared in his employment mandate to department heads.

"You will therefore, keeping in mind the needs of economy, make a study of your department so that it may contribute as far as it is able to our common task of providing work and wages for our unemployed Californians."

Director of Public Work Earl Lee Kelly surveyed the situation in his department and laid the first report before the governor.

Governor Merriam's department of public works program for the fiscal year 1934-1935 provides for an expenditure of $18,200,00 of federal and state funds for highway work.

The effect of the governor's mandate on employment will stimulate both public and privately managed employment.

Housing Act Plans Locally Are Discussed

Chamber Offices Will Be Headquarters; Meet Called

SELECT HEADQUARTERS

If you are interested in the National Better Housing Program, you can secure authentic information free at the office of the chamber of commerce, 812 Middlefield road, Sequoia Theatre Building, just off Broadway, or Phone Redwood City 89. This service is made available to facilitate the placing of a large number of loans in Redwood City under this act, which will help to employ contractors and workmen and increase consuming power.

With representatives present from practically all of the civic organizations of the community, the contractors and business in general, another step forward was taken Monday in arrangements for the local campaign in connection with the national housing act.

Presided over by Edward T. Harrison, president, the meeting took place at the chamber of commerce office.

At the suggestion of L. C. Christianson, city councilman, the chamber office was designated as headquarters for information regarding the national housing act, and also for the campaign. Howard I. Wood, manager of the chamber, was named as secretary of the committee in charge.

D. R. Stafford, representing the real estate board, told of plans being completed for the campaign at San Jose, where they have purchased an old house, moved it to a downtown vacant lot, and will renovize it as part of the promotional and publicity activity. Contractors and business firms will contribute all of the labor and material used on the job.

$600 Collected In 'Y' Campaign

Redwood City is still holding the lead over Burlingame in the campaign for funds for the work of the Young Men's Christian Association in the respective communities. Redwood has reached the 30 per cent mark on its goal while Burlingame has just passed the 15 per cent mark on its quota. Redwood's total raised to date stands at $600 on the $2,000 goal.

Thursday evening San Mateo enters the race with a kick-off dinner under the chairmanship of Mayor Aylett Cotton. A fine group of captains and workers made up of men prominent in civic affairs will handle the campaign there.

Chairman Clarence Argo of the local campaign urges every captain and worker to push forward in the work of the solicitation so that the splendid lead which the workers here have secured over the Burlingame men may be increased if possible.

'Brakes Will Stop Wheels, But Tires Must Stop Car'

The old maxim that "brakes will stop your wheels but the tires must stop your car" is becoming increasingly important, in the belief of Lynch Bros., local dealer for the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company.

"The ability to stop in time in event of emergency is of paramount importance," Lynch Bros. assert. "Every motorist should, whether he cares for his own safety or not, have some regard for the safety of others—and old, worn thin, smooth tires are exceptionally dangerous.

"Particularly at this time of year, with streets thronged with children going to and from school, the automobile driver should be certain that he can stop in time if a child suddenly darts out in front of his car. Smooth tires will skid and will not stop the speeding automobile—and often an accident ending in death or injury and a life of remorse for the driver is the result."

Cowboy Judge Hopes to Spur His Way to Congress Victory

Judge P L. Gassaway looks as if he were ready for a rodeo, but he's aiming at a higher prize—election to Congress from the Fourth Oklahoma district—and voters there count on him to spur on some excitement if he arrives. The judge is an expert roper and rider, as well as politician.

Dr. Morrison Hearing Set

Ousted Health Chief Will Be Heard October 5

Public hearing on the charges of the board of health and the board of supervisors that Dr. Harold E. Morrison, suspended San Mateo county health officer, had been engaging in political activity against two incumbent supervisors and refused to co-operate on the health program was set today by the supervisors for Friday, October 5, at 10 a. m.

At that time Dr. Morrison will be given an opportunity to answer the board of health's charges.

Dr. Morrison was suspended yesterday by the supervisors on a complaint signed by Dr. C. V. Thompson, board chairman, who was one of those politically attacked by the health chief. Mrs. Rosalie Brown was the other.

County Executive Walter Kellogg took charge of the Community Hospital today and instructed the staff to proceed as usual. Dr. Morrison was not at the hospital when Kellogg called.

Novice Autoist Is Fined for Crash

BURLINGAME, Sept. 24.—Albert Sperber, 20, of San Francisco, a novice driver emerging from a party here late Saturday night, today was fined $25 in police court for reckless driving, reduced from a hit-run charge when he promised to pay for damage he caused when the car he was driving crashed into a parked car, a store window and a pole.

Spencer, with George Gordon, another youth, went driving in the car of William Spencer, which they took from the party. They reported it stolen afterwards. Two girls who came to Burlingame with them were questioned.

Bread or Cake Keep Perfectly In Ice Boxes

Did you know that a modern ice refrigerator makes a perfect bread or cake box? Bread or cake kept there will remain fresh and sweet much longer, for this reason The melting ice in the ice compartment not only chills the air, but also conditions it.

Food odors and impurities are continuously dissolved and carried off down the drain by the melting ice, thus leaving the air in your ice refrigerator always pure and fresh.

At the same time, the air passing through the ice compartment picks up just the right amount of humidity to keep bread and cake, as well as other foods, from drying out.

Ask $150,000 In Two Deaths

Mexico Rancher's Kin File Suits Over Hit-Run Case

Two damage suits asking for a total of $150,000 were filed in the superior court here as the result of the hit-run accident on Valparaiso avenue, Menlo Park, last October 1, in which Francisco F. del Valle, wealthy Guadalajara, Mexico, rancher, and his daughter, Maria Christina, 17, were killed.

The father and daughter were run down by the automobile of Fred H. Madson, Gilroy horseman, while they and Mrs. del Valle were walking to the Sacred Heart convent, in which the girl was to be entered. Madson is now in San Quentin prison serving a term of manslaughter as a result of the tragedy.

Senora Josefina A. de F. del Valle, widow of the slain man, in one of the suits asks $50,000 for the death of her daughter. In the other, she and seven other children seek $100,000 for the death of del Valle.

Madson and his employers, Harold H. and Mary D. Lane, owners of the Crosswicks Ranch at Gilroy, are named as defendants. Madson was arrested at the ranch three days after the accident.

The complaints in the suit were sworn to by Senora del Valle before Charles C. Gidney Jr., United States consul at uadalajara. Her attorney is rover O'Connor, of San Francisco.

$400 of Property Recovered by Nieri

Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri yesterday recovered $400 worth of property allegedly stolen by Lloyd Avery, 26, and Harold Kraemer, 26, both of Menlo Park. The goods were found in a cabin near Mayfield.

The property was burglarized from the home of Mary Brusie in Palomar Park on December 31, 1933.

Kraemer was arrested last Saturday and booked at the county jail, where Avery has been serving a four-month sentence on a vagrancy charge. The pair confessed the burglary Monday, Nieri reported.

Nieri reported that two slot machines were found in each of the places in raids on September 19. The defendants are scheduled to appear before Justice of the Peace Gus Risso of Burlingame.

129,642 Books in Circulation

CITY LIBRARY AGAIN TOPS RECORDS

83% of People Using Facilities

With 129,642 books for home reading in circulation during 1933 34 for an all-time record—an increase of 91,245 volumes in five years—the Redwood City Public Library goes steadily forward serving the needs of 83 per cent of the city's population now using the library facilities.

In her annual report to the library trustees, Miss Wilhelmina Harper, city librarian, declares that the "demands upon our services have never been greater," but through the efforts of the library trustees and staff "every possible effort has been made to meet our definite responsibility to the community during the continued period of economic distress."

The new record of 129,642 volumes is an increase of 10,901 books over the year preceding, Miss Harper reports. The increased demands have been met without enlargement of the staff or budget.

Monthly circulation of the city library during the past five years has grown from 3200 to 10,800.

At least 60,000 visits to the library were made by patrons during the past year.

Circulation of magazines in the 12 months totaled 4416, an increase of 1363 for the year.

The largest circulation increase has been in adult non-fiction and the juvenile groups, as follows:

Adult fiction circulation, 56,440—increase, 634.

Adult non-fiction, 28,202 — increase, 4493.

Juvenile, 45,000—increase, 5774.

"There were 24 books per borrower issued during the year," Miss Harper reports, "and we have the high per capita rate of 14.6."

Reports by departments follow:

Reading room: 25,019 magazine and newspaper readers during the year; increase, 4867.

Reference department: 3789 questions looked up during the year with full information supplied.

Children's department: 45,000 books in circulation. A special feature of this work has been the preparation of reading lists for upper school grades so that pupils have been given guides in their required school reading.

Registration department: 7446 library members registered, or 83 per cent of the city population. Of this number, 5445 are active members. New members added during the year were 1112 while 1345 expired memberships were renewed.

Catalogue department: 1975 new books were added during the year, requiring the typing and filing of 10,000 catalog cards. The total volumes now on han dnumber 15,-061. Ten thousand of this number have been added during the past five years, but the number is held to be below the requirement for a community of this size.

Binding: 1435 volumes were rebound, and 1529 books were mended.

"Men from all walks of life, both the unemployed and the employed, come to us in increasing numbers for educational and vocational aid," Miss Harper said.

"Others fill our reading rooms daily, absorbed in the newspapers and magazines. Both men and women seek self-improvement today as never before and read our books not only for enlightenment but for strengthening of mind as well," she reported. "We endeavor to give individual attention to every need."

Miss Harper expresses appreciation to the assistance given by Miss Clara Dills and her staff of the county library.

Members of the library board responsible for the success of the institution are Sanford B. Dole, president; Dr. N. C. Cummings, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, John Gill and Mrs. Z. T. Thorning.

Board Grants Track Permit

Spur for Horse Cars To Be Constructed At San Mateo

Permit to construct a spur track across the Old County road at Beresford to permit handling of race horse cars at the new Bay Meadows racing plant was granted Monday by the board of supervisors to the Southern Pacific Company.

A. J. Pollock, representing the California Jockey Club, spoke in favor of immediately granting the permit because some eastern horses were already on their way west for the opening late in October.

The board today dropped the proposed formation of the Emerald Lake lighting and highway districts.

Lease for the rental of 140 acres of the relief farm property to M. V. Nunes Jr. at a rental of $450 yearly had the approval of the board.

Engineer James S. James was authorized to proceed with repairs of the Graceland Park road.

Sera projects, including $96 for book mending at Sequoia and $168 for clerical work at McKinley School, were approved.

Unknown Driver In Crash Flees

An unidentified man driving a new sedan without license plates or a permit, who gave a fictitious Palo Alto address as his place of residence, according to police, crashed into a car driven by F. P. Allen, 114 Pope street, North Palo Alto, early on Tuesday at the intersection of the Bayshore highway and Willow road.

Although Allen's car, a coupe, was totally wrecked, Allen and G. H. King, a neighbor who was riding with him, miraculously escaped injury.

The Redwood City office of the California State Highway Patrol said that it would confer with Allen late this afternoon to see if they could discover any information which would lead to the apprehension of the missing driver.

Allen and King were on their way to a business meeting in Redwood City, and had come to a complete stop at the intersection, when the other car roared up from the south and struck Allen's car, according to his wife.

Quarry Work To Continue

Belmont Group Not To Halt Excavating At Belle Monti

BELMONT, Sept. 25.—In a fiery meeting, in which heated arguments threatened to turn into fist fights, the Belmont City Council last night, led by Mayor Chris L. Jordan, refused the plea of Citizens' Association for Good Government to stop the excavating being done on Hillman road in Belle Monti for the Bay Meadows race track.

Members of the association appeared to protest vigorously the quarrying of gravel which is to be used for the race track. Thomas Pennington claimed that already an excavation measuring 200 x 200 feet and about 50 feet deep had been made.

Mayor Jordan admitted that he had at least $25,000 in trucking equipment engaged in the quarrying, but asked whether or not he had to put his trucks to the use that the people of Belmont demanded.

Atherton Building Permits Show Gain

Building permits issued during the month of September to date in Atherton represent a total value of new construction in the amount of $35,966, more than five times the amount for the previous month.

The foregoing figures were submitted to the Atherton town council at its meeting late yesterday afternoon by Thomas G. Packham, city clerk.

The largest single item was a permit for construction of an $18,-378 home for Mrs. Suzanne Perry, to be built on the Perry estate adjoining El Camino Real. A permit for a $12,280 residence was issued to G. E. Tourtillette of San Francisco. The building is being erected at Stockbride and Ralston avenues. Several other permits for smaller jobs made up the $35,966 total.

Harlin had $482 in his pockets.

Health Chief Is Suspended For 'Politics'

Action Follows Former Attempt to Remove Him Last Year

Accused of political activity against two incumbent supervisors and of refusing to cooperate with the county health board, Dr. Harold E. Morrison, militant San Mateo county health officer, was suspended Tuesday for a second time in less than a year by the board of supervisors.

Dr. Morrison's bold statement to the press yesterday that his opposition to re-election of the incumbents had been a "large factor" in their failure to clear the primary hurdles, was the chief charge lodged against the health chief.

The health officer had worked against the re-election of Dr. C. V. Thompson, Burlingame supervisor and board chairman, and Mrs. Rosalie M. Brown, San Mateo supervisor, according to his own admissions.

County Executive Walter Kellogg refused to sign the charges against Dr. Morrison as he had done last October, and this necessitated Dr. Thompson doing so.

In signing the complaint, Dr. Thompson said he was acting to remove "a defiant, dissenting and disturbing element in county government," and that he welcomed the "showdown."

Dr. Thompson said that he acted "knowing that my political interests might suffer," but he said it was his "firm conviction that I am serving the public welfare and my county government."

"I feel," he said, "when the facts are known my action will be vindicated."

Executive Kellogg had hoped to forestall any action against Dr. Morrison at this time because the appointment of the health officer expires on January 7 and it would take to the middle of November, at least, to secure his removal.

The board, however, agreed with the health committee that action should be immediate as it was stated some persons were saying that Dr. Morrison had the board "buffaloed."

"I'm not afraid of Dr. Morrison or of any of his so-called charges," Dr. Thompson said.

"In view of the fact that the county executive, who is administrative head of county government, refuses to sign the charges," he said, "I deem it my duty as chairman of the supervisorial board to do so.

"I feel that it is high time the county had a showdown with Dr. Morrison, who has been a defiant, dissenting and disturbing element in county government for a long time. He has accused me and other county officials of grave things, and I welcome an opportunity for him to prove them," Dr. Thompson said.

"The people of this county must surely realize by this time that Dr. Morrison cannot be expected to be an asset to county governmental administration. The board has suspended him on charges which he will have every opportunity to answer.

"In signing the charges against Dr. Morrison I do so knowing that my political interests in the coming election might suffer, but it is my firm conviction that I am serving the public welfare and my county government. This is the first duty of my office, and what the people have a right to expect of me.

"I feel, however, when the facts are known my action in this matter will be vindicated," he chairman declared.

Executive Kellogg will serve as health officer pending the hearing on Dr. Morrison's charges.

The suspension of Dr. Morrison came upon motion of Supervisor Brown and second of Supervisor John Poole, Redwood City.

The health board met with the supervisors in Executive Kellogg's office prior to taking action on Dr. Morrison. After discussing the demand of Dr. Morrison that Dr. E. W. Cleary resign as a member of the county health board, the latter group went on record declaring the health chief's statements to be unjust to Dr. Cleary. Dr. Morrison had charged that Dr. Cleary was serving the interests of Dr. A. L. Offield, superintendent of the Community Hospital.

Mrs. Elsa McGinn, member of the health board, moved that the group recommend to the supervisors that Dr. Morrison be suspended. Miss Pansy J. Abbott, secretary of the board, seconded the motion. Drs. Cleary and Harper Peddicord, chairman of the board, voted to make the motion unanimous.

Confessions Made To Two Burglaries

Harold Kraemer, 26, and Lloyd Avery, 26, both of Menlo Park, were declared by Undersheriff Lawrence Nieri today to have confessed burglary of a home in Palomar Park several months ago.

Kramer was arrested Saturday by Nieri and booked at the county jail, where Avery has been serving a four-month sentence on a vagrancy charge.

Confessions were obtained by Constable F. B. Grill from four Menlo Park high school youths to burglarizing the residence of R. M. Bacon, Stanford student, on Perry lane, near Menlo Park on August 15. A radio, golf clubs and bags taken from the place have been recovered. The four boys are being turned over to juvenile court authorities.

Every home in this "City" bought A 1934 ICE REFRIGERATOR

Are Californians buying ice refrigerators this year? Yes! The ice companies alone have sold enough to furnish every home in a city the size of Fresno with a gleaming white, low temperature, 1934 ice refrigerator.

Why This Overwhelming Endorsement of ICE Refrigeration

Because thousands upon thousands of shrewd California housewives have proved to their own satisfaction that only one form of refrigeration provides all refrigeration advantages. And that is ICE in a modern ice refrigerator.

This Low Temperature Ice Refrigerator 44.50

You Want All These Refrigeration Advantages. See That You Get Them.

LOW TEMPERATURE
1934 ice refrigerators give lower temperatures with less ice.

FLAVOR PROTECTION
Only ice provides the non-drying cold that keeps foods fresh and tasty.

PLENTIFUL ICE
You never "run out of ice cubes" with an ice refrigerator.

DEPENDABILITY
A block of ice never gets out of order.

CONVENIENCE
Give the ice man your back door key—he'll make your ice refrigerator "automatic."

BEAUTY
1934 ice refrigerators are beautifully designed, and finished in gleaming white.

LOW COST
Size for size, ice refrigerators cost only one-fourth as much as standard mechanical substitutes. An ice refrigerator is cheaper to buy and cheaper to own. Figure the depreciation on a mechanical unit and you'll soon see why.

THINK TWICE AND YOU'LL USE ICE

Important To You!

If you are feeling "low" there is undoubtedly something fundamentally wrong with your system.

We invite you to come to us for free consultation. You may come to us with confidence and we will discuss frankly and simply the function of Chinese Herbs. They are the remedy that the Chinese people have used for more than 4000 years and are as natural as health itself. They are cooked and made into a mild tea which even a child may drink with ease. They heal gently, easily and with no conflict to the normal functions of the body. The Chinese people do not believe in highly concentrated medicines so common to the average American. The Chinese Herbs ar made of roots, barks and natural herbs and are imported from China.

Thousands of people have blessed the day that they finally decided to visit a Chinese Herbalist after doctoring for many years and receiving no relief and spending hundreds of dollars in other methods.

After talking to you we will tell you frankly whether or not Chinese Herbs can help you.

Your visit to our offices is entirely without obligation or embarrassment to yourself.

Whatever you are suffering from—liver, kidneys, stomach or blood troubles, or whether you are affected with catarrh, cough, asthma, bronchitis, headaches, neuralgia, dizziness, rheumatism, sorethroat, skin disorders or female trouble—come to us. We also prove to you the superior effectiveness of the Chinese herbs. Don't think we can be of no service to you just because others could do you no good. Such cases are exactly what we are after.

To Women Who Hate Sewing

IT should be second nature to have the best possible kind of lighting in the home. Where women sew—and what woman does not have some darning or mending to do?—good light should aid her work. If the light she works by is insufficient, eyes are sure to complain, nervous headaches begin and the hated sewing is put aside.

Eye specialists are constantly warning us to conserve our eyesight and nervous systems. Research shows that 23% of young people under 20 years, 39% under 30 years, and 75% over 50 years of age are victims of defective vision. Eye specialists recognize too, the value of a Sight Meter as a scientific means of testing lighting conditions.

For expert assistance in improving your home lighting, see your local electric dealer, or for an accurate check-up on your lighting with the Sight Meter ask for our free Home Lighting Survey. There is no cost or obligation for this new service.

Plans to 'Hold Fort' At Hospital If Necessary

That he welcomed a "showdown" with the supervisors and health board and that he "would beat them again" was the comment of Dr. Harold E. Morrison, county health officer, when informed today of the supervisors' action suspending him.

"The board walked into my trap," Dr. Morrison said. "I'll beat them like I did before." This latter remark referred to his victory in the courts over supervisorial attempts to remove him.

Dr. Morrison said he would not surrender his offices during the period of the suspension and that he would again barricade himself at the Community Hospital, if necessary, to carry on his duties as he had on the previous occasion.

The eastern shoreline of Great Salt Lake has receded three miles and the level of the lake is 29 inches below the record low mark set in December, 1905.

Assisting her were the San Mateo county council drill team and Mrs. Mary Pontins, first vice-president, who acted as sargeant-at-arms. Members of the unit will assist Mrs. Devol. Mrs. Devol has as her house guest Miss Georgia Barnum of San Francisco.

Mrs. Peter Bush and Mrs. C. A. Devol will attend the Red Cross luncheon at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco today.

Dr. and Mrs. Lowry S. Howard are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Irving J. Sturgis at Oxnard. Dr. Howard is president of the Menlo School and Junior College, of which Mr. Sturgis is a trustee.

Menlo Park's city council Tuesday night fixed October 8 at 8 o'clock as the time for a public hearing on proposed zoning changes for Santa Cruz avenue between Chestnut and University drive. The city planning commission recommended to the council weeks ago that the zoning classification in the area in question be changed from residential to business, because of the presence of business enterprise already existing in that section.

Meanwhile the city attorney, James O'Keefe Jr., will approach the planning commission to determine whether or not that body will recommend that the south side of Doyle street between Menlo and Santa Cruz be likewise changed from residential to business classification. The north side of Doyle, on which the new city hall is located, is already zoned for business.

If the planning commission recommends such a change, the council will meet in special session to include the Doyle street zoning proposal in the public hearing to be held on the 8th. The suggestion that Doyle street be zoned entirely for business was made to the council last night by Miss Emma Noel.

Delinquencies Seen

After receiving a warning from City treasurer J. William Ryan to the effect that further delinquencies in retirement of street improvement bonds will pile up by next January 2, when further payments on bond principal and interest are due, unless the council takes some action promptly to collect, O'Keefe was instructed to write a circular letter to all delinquents advising them of their responsibilities. The letter will make it clear that property owners who fail to make their payments on street bonds will lose their property, which will be taken over for non-payment of taxes.

The council instructed the city attorney, street commissioner, and building inspector to take steps toward obtaining SERA funds for preparation of a city master plan and block book. The planning commission had previously recommended such action.

Trees Damaged

O'Keefe was requested to send a letter to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, requesting that firm to use discretion in trimming trees along Menlo Park streets. Councilman Irving Dunn told council members that careless trimming was damaging trees.

The council received a letter from the State Emergency Relief Administration, inquiring if Menlo Park laws prohibit employment of aliens on local relief projects. Unless local laws specifically prohibit such employment, aliens may be supplied with work on relief projects.

To Approve Widening

A report of the planning commission that state plans for widening of El Camino Real be approved was accepted by the council.

O'Keefe reported that a slight saving of $15 a month, which he considered hardly worth while, could be effected in cost of street lighting on El Camino Real if the lights are turned off at midnight. The annual bill which the city pays for all-night lighting service on the highway through town is $1,042. No action was taken on the report, the council evidently concurring with the city attorney in his belief that the saving is not worth the loss of street lighting after midnight.
